Compliance Status for 2018-19 school year: Out of Compliance

Explanation: Two years ago, our Superintendent passed away mid-year and there was a sudden change in administration. At about the same time, our Librarian, who also oversaw our TAG program retired. Amidst the many changes taking place, the TAG identification process fell through the cracks.

Proposed Corrective Action: We are working with other districts within the county to help us formulate a more comprehensive plan to identify and serve our academically talented and intellectually gifted students. We will also restructure current staff schedules and assignments in an effort identify a TAF Coordinator to run our program.

Explanation: (See 581-022-2325 above) Two years ago, our Superintendent passed away mid-year and there was a sudden change in administration. At about the same time, our Librarian, who also oversaw our TAG program retired. Amidst the many changes taking place, the TAG identification process fell through the cracks. Because we have not been in compliance with our identification, we have also not been in compliance with parent notification.

Proposed Corrective Action: We are working with other districts within the county to help us formulate a more comprehensive plan to identify and serve our academically talented and intellectually gifted students. We will also restructure current staff schedules and assignments in an effort identify a TAF Coordinator to run our program.
